

School Resource Quick-Start

A one-page plan for sharing the resources responsibly

A short, practical starting point for educators, school nurses, counselors, family liaisons, and district teams.

Awareness • Faith • Confidence

Recommended order

1. Read the School Guide before facilitating a conversation.
2. Choose one student activity that suits the age group.
3. Display a poster where students and families can see it.
4. Share the Family Guide with caregivers as appropriate.
5. Identify the school's point person for bullying reports and follow-up.

Before you share

- Keep the Vitiligo Bond name and attribution visible.
- Do not alter the content or present it as another organization's work.
- Do not use the material to identify or single out a student.
- Follow school privacy, safeguarding, and bullying-response policies.
- Send colleagues to the official resource page for the latest files.
